

Seeking College-Level Pianists for Internship

An active member of the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts, The School of Ballet Nouveau Colorado is guided by a philosophy that any person who walks through its doors deserves the highest caliber dance education. The School of BNC serves more than 300 students per year and is deeply committed to every student regardless of age, ability, aspiration, or socio-economic status. Under the guidance of Julia Wilkinson Manley since 2002, The School of BNC has become highly respected in the Denver area for providing a nurturing and professional environment that produces dancers of both strong mind and body.

We are seeking mature, responsible college-level pianists. Interested and qualified applicants will learn to accompany ballet classes and will complete a 6-week internship with the School of BNC during our Advanced Summer Intensive.

Qualifications

- Must be currently enrolled in advanced-level college piano courses, or must have completed college-level piano course work
- Prior knowledge of ballet class format a plus, but not required
- Quick sight-reading skills
- Commitment to high standards
- Exceptional communication skills and ability to effectively work with people of all ages, backgrounds and positions

Application Process

Please send the following required documents to:

Ballet Nouveau Colorado
Attn: Accompanist Internship Committee
3001 Industrial Ln. #12
Broomfield, CO 80020

- Cover letter
- Résumé
- 2 letters of recommendation from college professors, employers, and/or piano instructors
- List of 3 or more references (from past/present employers or piano teachers)

Compensation / benefits

- Free classes at The School of Ballet Nouveau Colorado
- $1 tickets to BNC student/professional performances during the 2010-2011 season

Expected commitment

- Training will take place mid-April through May 2010 (schedule based on pianist availability)
- 6-week commitment: June 21-July 31 (2-3 days/week Monday-Sunday)

Inquires

Hillary Denham
(303) 466-5685
hdenham@bncdance.com